Custom Pickup Design Services

What is a custom pickup? Is it a strat pickup that you wind a little hot? Is it changing from alnico magnets to ceramic? Not really.... A real custom pickup is made to satisfy the needs of a special application. A space that's restrictive or unique, a sound you are looking for, or a "look" that is unique.....Does Rio Grande provide that? Yes, we do.

Custom pickups made for Allison Guitars

CrunchBox Bulldozer

We can custom design the pickup of your dreams, both visual and functional, for your fantasy or custom guitar.

Is this easy? Not Necessarily.

Does Rio Grande Pickups have the wherewithal to accomplish this?
Absolutely.

We are American company based in Houston, Texas producing our own pickup parts. We're housed in a 5000 sq-ft shop using modern CNC and laser equipment as well as fully traditional methods.
